Are You Tolerant Of Minorities?

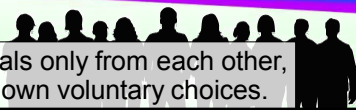

The smallest minority is the individual. Those who tolerate the majority's limits on individual freedom cannot claim to be tolerant of minorities.

How much personal and economic freedom can you tolerate?

Outlaw only fraud and initiated force. Legalize anything honest and peaceful. End all taxes on peaceful labor, clean production, and voluntary exchanges. Pay the full costs to others when you deplete, pollute, congest, or monopolize a commons. Secure liberty and justice for every individual.

Protect individuals only from each other,
not from their own voluntary choices.

Libertarians agree with the Left:

- Don't legislate personal morality
- Let you control your own body
- Get the Republicans out of your bedroom

Libertarians agree with the Right:

- Don't legislate economic equality
- Let you control your own money
- Get the Democrats out of your wallet

Please don't feed the Donkeys & Elephants
It just increases their output

The only wasted vote is the one that says the Left and Right give you all the choice you need.

Keep voting Libertarian until you're too free.
